ELBA BOYS HAPPY

There was rejoicing among the boys of Elba Tuesday morning when they learned that the new city council had rehired J. F. "Bo" Dunaway as Chief of Police for another term.

Regardless of what Chief Dunaway has accomplished or will accomplish as a law enforcement officer, his work with the boys of Elba during the seven months he has been here has been of inestimable value to our community.

Chief Dunaway loves boys and they love him. Two of his outstanding accomplishments along this line have been the organization of a junior police force and a Little League Baseball team. He promises to put forth his best efforts to form a Little League in Elba as soon as school is out next spring.

The Junior Police force composed of 12 boys between the ages of 10 and 15 has functioned remarkably well as directors of traffic at strategic street intersections in the school zone. They have entered into their jobs seriously and enthusiastically and have already been of valuable service in facilitating traffic movement and looking out for the safety of students.

Their work in directing traffic at the Elba-Opp football game last Friday night was remarkably efficient and received much commendation.

INVESTIGATION CONTINUES

Sheriff H. D. Tillman stated Wednesday morning that the Montgomery Negro arrested in connection with a prohibition law violation, had been released on bond. J. D. King had been confined to the Coffee County jail for several days.

King is charged with driving the 1938 DeSoto automobile which was captured more than a week ago with 100 gallons of bootleg whiskey in it.

Sheriff Tillman said a party in Montgomery made bond for King.

The car and run are being held at the Coffee County jail. The car behind the locked gate. Another Negro in the car at the time it was captured escaped and has not been apprehended.

Sheriff Tillman said he intends to go to Montgomery soon to investigate the car ownership which was supposed to have changed hands one or more times within the past 3 months.

The DeSoto car was captured more than a week ago following a chase out the Troy highway which ended when the car bogged down in the soft ground in Top Plant's yard.

BUSINESS MATTERS

In a discussion of the Sunset Boulevard sewer line project, the council postponed action until such time as they could see the contract Emco Engineering Co. would have drawn up. The firm has been awarded the job but final details of their contract haven't been worked out.

A report from the U. S. Army Engineer's office on the levee was read. An inspector wrote that he found everything satisfactory except at a spot on the levee where the C & S Lumber yard is located. He said sand was being blown into the canal could cause high water to back up and give the city trouble.

In this connection, Flournoy Whitman reported he was going to ask for authority to go over through the levee in his road project that cuts from the Kinston highway to the Opp highway. The county commissioner from this district also reported that the proposed paving project of Elba's streets in cooperation with the state highway department, had been indefinitely held up by John Patterson's estate attorney general's court litigation of state finance department purchases of black topping. He also said he was afraid the widening of the road from Cook's store to the ice plant might be halted at its

On the recreation problem, the council appointed a six-man board that was recommended by a group headed by Horton Pick. Members are Mrs. Getheral Pinkard and Mrs. Boyd Murphree from the P-T A.; Henry Dorsey, Chamber of Commerce; Roy King, Junior Chamber; Harry Boswell, Elba Branch of Commerce; Ellis Brazelton, Lions Club, and Albert Reeves, American Legion.

OCTOBER

Record Crowd of 2,400 Watches Opp Slaughter Elba 33-0

Supt. Sam J. Casey announced Monday morning that there were more than 2,400 paid admissions at the Elba-Opp football game last Friday night and the receipts amounted to over $1,800. He stated that the attendance and amount of money received were considerably larger than for any home game last year.

When the Opp Bobcats play in Elba there is always much interest and a good turnout. The same is true of the Enterprise Wildcats so another capacity crowd is expected Friday night when the Tigers and Wildcats tangle in another of their traditional "all-out" contests.

Local fans have been trying to determine which is more ferocious this year, a Bobcat or a Wildcat. Having been treated rather roughly by the Bobcats, they hope the claws of this year's Wildcats aren't so long and sharp as Opp's.

There's also hope the Tigers will sharpen their offensive weapons and do a little clawing and scratching of their own.

The Opp Bobcats got sweet revenge Friday night for the humiliating defeat handed to them by the Elba Tigers the past two seasons when they walked the Tigers at Elba stadium to the tune of 33-0.

At times the Tigers showed flashes of offensive and defensive strength, holding the heavy Bobcats to small gains. When in possession of the ball, the Tigers could make good yardage for frequent first downs. Then, boom, the bottom would drop out and the Bobcats would make long runs for touchdowns.

Questions on Zion Chapel Answered by Dr. Meadows

August 23 The Clipper submitted a list of questions to Dr. A. R. Meadows, state superintendent of education, concerning the maintenance of high schools at Zion Chapel and New Hope. His answers are quoted here without being changed in any way and without comment.

Q. Please explain why it is important for a student to take his secondary education in an accredited high school. Also, briefly explain the meaning of accreditation and a few of the major requirements a school has to have to become accredited.

A. A student should attend an accredited high school because first of all such a school in general offers better education than one that is not accredited. There could be an exception to the general rule because of one or two unusually gifted teachers in an unaccredited school but that is a rare exception. An unaccredited high school must offer one or more definitely planned school programs. Most high schools offer two or three definitely planned school programs as follows:

One program is developed for those who know they are going on to college. Another program gives basic education which can be given for college preparatory courses but also gives commercial subjects such as typewriting, shorthand, bookkeeping, and simple accounting. Students in the second program may be able to take enough basic subjects to qualify to enter college and still do the commercial subjects.

A third program includes some of the basic subjects that are necessary for success in college but offers vocational education work in agriculture primarily for the boys and home economics primarily for the girls and in the twos and cities of the state which might be called work experiences.

Students in the third program are in trade and industrial occupations. The larger accredited high schools can offer all three programs and can assist the student in shifting from one program to another if the student with the help of the faculty decides that his talents and desires are such that he could profit from shifting over to one of the other programs.

A student finishing an accredited high school enters college without any tests or examinations, but a student from an unaccredited high school is required to take tests or examinations. The pupils in the unaccredited high school are handicapped if worse handicapped if he also seeks to enter vocational or trade occupations. The unaccredited high school cannot offer vocational education through State and Federal aid for vocational teachers because this type aid is limited to accredited high schools. There is not enough state aid to cover all the vocational teachers needed for all the accredited high schools in the State is certainly operating on a sound policy in not attempting to offer vocational education in the unaccredited high schools.

Q. Can a high school be established without a survey from your office?

A. A high school cannot be accredited without a survey from the State Department of education shows that it should be an approved high school.

Q. Has a survey been made in the New Hope and Zion Chapel communities of Coffee County? If so, what is the recommendation for establishing any new high schools in this county?

A. The State Department of Education survey of Coffee County does not recommend either New Hope or Zion Chapel for a senior high school.

Q. If you were to recommend the establishment of a high school, would there be any money available for building and equipping a secondary school?

A. There is not State money for building or equipping any high school at this time.

Q. Will students from an unaccredited high school be able to take an entrance examination to enter an accredited high school?

A. Students in unaccredited high schools have to take entrance examinations to enter college.

Q. Will the high school athletic board allow an unaccredited high school to participate in football and basketball with an unaccredited high school? Zion Chapel residents have leveled a field for football and were reported to put lights on it.

A. Unaccredited high schools are not approved for football and basketball schedules and tournaments.

Q. How much money will it take to establish an accredited high school, starting from scratch as they are in Zion Chapel and New Hope communities? Is it feasible to do this for a potential student body of around 70 high school students? This money is to be spent on libraries, science, agriculture and home economics equipment and nothing on a building.

A. It is not feasible to build a high school for 70 high school students in an unaccredited area in the State and I doubt if it will ever be advantageous to do so.

Q. What average daily attendance must an accredited high school have per teacher?

A. Five teachers is the minimum required for an accredited high school.

Q. What is the teacher load in an accredited high school? Please explain teacher load.

A. Teacher loads vary in high schools but the average should not exceed 30 pupils per teacher.

Q. What is the approximate number of students needed to warrant establishing a high school in a situation like Zion Chapel?

A. The six-year high school is better for the children if the enrollment is between 750 and 1,000. The State has approved senior high schools for 250 and approximately 150 pupils but such approval is only where pupils cannot be transported to larger high schools because of distance, poor road conditions or natural barriers.

Q. Why Coffee County taxpayers and school patrons allow a handful of people to continue the impossible experiment of setting up high schools at Zion Chapel and New Hope is more than we can understand.

To prove to ourselves and readers that the school board is on the wrong track, we sent Dr. A. R. Meadows, state superintendent of education, the list of questions printed above. Not a single answer supports the establishment of high schools at Zion Chapel and New Hope.

Dr. Meadows, with a doctorate in education and a lifetime of experience in the public schools, is supported by other trained educators. They have no sympathy with jurisdictional disputes between city and county boards. Their main interest is getting the most and best education possible for Alabama children with money and facilities available. The Coffee County Board of Education should have the same interests.

A tragic part of the situation is the misleading information being fed to students and patrons at Zion Chapel school. An Elba businessman told me he was present when students at the school were told the vocational agriculture department from Elba would be eventually moved to Zion Chapel. Dr. Meadows writes, "An unaccredited high school cannot offer vocational education."

Festival At Baalbeck

Against a magnificent natural background of towering Roman ruins, some of the world's leading musicians are presenting a series of concerts which mark the opening of the month-long International Festival of Baalbeck, held in Lebanon's historic "City of the Sun."

American artists are sharing the concert platform with the Baalbeck Symphony Orchestra, which is featuring the best known works of Mozart in commemoration of the 200th anniversary of the great musician. Guest conductor for two of the orchestra's performances is Leon Barin, from the United States. Another American, pianist Aldo Marchionni, is performing a special composition entitled "Concerto No. 2" by Anis Fuleihan, former director of music at the University of Illinois and present director of the National Conservatory of Music in Beirut.

In addition to the musical concerts, which will continue through August 5, the Baalbeck Festival will include four plays presented by the Comedie Francaise during the week of August 15. Racine's "Mithridate" and "Andronicus" Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar" and Jean Cocteau's "Mephistopheles" starting on August 25. The festival will play host to England's Regent Park Players, who will present Shakespeare's "Hamlet" and "Twelfth Night."

During all these performances Baalbeck's historic ruins, including the 2,000-year-old temples of Jupiter and Bacchus, are flooded by a huge new electric plant which was installed after the tremendous popular success of last year's initial festival in the ancient town. This year's festival, sponsored by Lebanese President Camille Chamoun and Madame Chamoun, is part of a national program to develop greater appreciation of the Arts in Lebanon and to provide cultural events of universal appeal for the thousands of tourists who flock each year to the ancient land of the Phoenicians.

Red Cross Offers Home Nursing Course

BY C. B. McDOWELL

A group of persons, including Lister Brunson, chairman of the West Coffee County Red Cross; Jimmy Holland, first campaign chairman, and Mrs. Gusie Hutchison, executive secretary, saw and heard a film on some nursing shown at the NASCO office building on last Thursday evening.

For the past year Nursing Services, American Red Cross has been working with the American Nurses' Association and the National League Nursing to determine the function of organized nursing in the fields of nursing service and education as they relate to the national defense program. It is recognized that emergency nursing in national disasters is included in the setup.

A training program to prepare community nurses for disaster as well as home nursing is included in the setup.

She urges all qualified applicants who wish to take this home nursing course to contact her at the Red Cross office in the Elba court house. She also urges all interested persons to watch the Home Nursing television program.

- KINSTON MIGHT BE a good distance from The Flowing Well but the payroll put out to the 170 women now employed there helps merchants here. And Billy Mullins, manager of the Kinston operation, still has a home here on the Troy highway.
- Last Thursday night he took time off to show us his operation. At the present time the plant is turning out 500 jackets per day of one kind and 500 of another style.

THANK YOU

For electing me to the post of councilman-at-large in the recent municipal elections. I will do my best to give the town a progressive government that builds for the future. Services provided by the city will be expanded and improved within the limits of a sound fiscal policy.

NEW BROCKTON FHA Plans Initiation Rites
The Executive council of the New Brockton Chapter of Future Homemakers of America is making plans for the coming year.

Members of the council are: president, Sandra Sawyer; vice president, Bonita Storey; secretary, Helen Lunsford; treasurer, Linda Bloodworth; reporter, Annette Lambert; parliamentarian, Carolyn Baker; historian, Barbara Helms; and song leader, Tina Thindol.

Plans for the October meeting are about complete. Highlighting the program will be an impressive initiation ceremony for the new member. Also included in the program are a devotional talent show and report of the state F. H. A. convention.

Charles Clark Makes Marion Grid Team
The Sunday edition of the Birmingham News printed a picture of the Marion Institute team showing Charles Clark on the first string. He was selected along with Martin Dwyer to play in the North-South All-Star game this fall.

Clark visited his parents, Mr. & Mrs. Fenton Clark over the weekend and said he was highly pleased with his situation at Marion. He has been transferred from center to halfback.

Charles weighed 178 when he reported for practice but has shot up to 190 pounds now. Donald Bowdoin from Elba is attending school on a basketball scholarship. Pete Dorsey and Jimmy Harper are two other Elbians enrolled at Marion.

John Frank Hudson
A native of Zion Chapel community, John Frank Hudson is a son of Mr. & Mrs. Foy Hudson. He attended Zion Chapel schools through the ninth grade. Tipping the scales at 170 pounds he has played three years in the Elba Tigers more than 20 years ago. Fans still talk about the time Foy blocked four punts against Dothan. John Frank's number is 29 and he is a captain.

AROUND THE FLOWING WELL
By Paul E. Cunningham

KINSTON MIGHT BE a good distance from The Flowing Well but the payroll put out to the 170 women now employed there helps merchants here. And Billy Mullins, manager of the Kinston operation, still has a home here on the Troy highway.

Last Thursday night he took time off to show us his operation. At the present time the plant is turning out 500 jackets per day of one kind and 500 of another style.

THANK YOU
For electing me to the post of councilman-at-large in the recent municipal elections. I will do my best to give the town a progressive government that builds for the future. Services provided by the city will be expanded and improved within the limits of a sound fiscal policy.

Q. To settle an argument, will you tell the correct way in which to eat peas? Is it ever proper to eat them with a spoon?

A. It is customary always to eat vegetables with the fork. This applies to peas, too.

Q. What does an usher at a church wedding do if several women arrive together?

A. He offers his arm to the eldest. If no other ushers are there to escort the other women, they follow in pairs.

About People
And Things
BY C. B. McDOWELL

I HEARD 'EM SAY:

Isiah Maddox said he met a man Sunday whom he had not seen in the past 46 years. R. R. Borders said that was nothing, he saw a man whom he had never seen before. At the football game Friday night I was sitting next to a man from Enterprise. When Fred Rice made one of his long runs, the Enterprise roster shouted in a loud voice that Rice is as good as Dyess ever was. I remembered that old proverb about silence being golden and kept my mouth shut. Leonard LeCompt said The Clipper was in error last week when William Crowe in his column "Under the Study Lamp" wrote that John the Baptist was thrown in prison for proclaiming Jesus was the Messiah. Mr. LeCompt said John the Baptist was imprisoned for rebuking Queen Jezebel for living in adultery. The Scriptures bear Mr. LeCompt out in his contention.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE

Rev. Ralph R. Hendricks, Mrs. J. M. Garrett, Mrs. W. R. Crook, Mrs. Nell Cooper, Mrs. L. S. Rainer Sr. and Mrs. C. B. McDowell represented the Elba Methodist Church at the District Conference of the Andalusia District held Thursday at Blue Lake, 15 miles southeast of Andalusia.

STREET PAVING

Commissioner Flournoy Whitman reported Tuesday morning that he had been assured by the State Highway Department that work of widening and paving the street from the Elba Ice plant to the Cook's Grocery on Troy Highway would be completed as soon as possible. His is heartening news as, owing to the legal controversy on administration buying of road-building materials, it was feared that it would not be possible to complete the project for some time.

MATH COOK RETURNS

"Uncle" Math Cook returned home Sunday from Dothan where he has been visiting his son for several weeks. Prior to that time he was confined to a hospital for two weeks, undergoing treatment for a heart ailment.

MATH COOK RETURNS

Mr. Cook was able to be on the Elba streets Monday morning and he said Elba and its people never looked so good to him before. He said he thinks he will make his home with his sister, Mrs. Odie Dyess, northwest of town, for awhile. His presence will be a great help to learn that he is much improved in health.

The Wildcats Level Elba Tigers, 32-0

As was expected by football fans in Elba and elsewhere, who were watching the early-season performances of the Elba Tigers and the Enterprise Wildcats, the Enterprise Wildcats proved to be the victors in the high-riding game played on Friday night at Elba stadium. The Wildcats won the game by a score of 32-0. The Wildcats picked up three touchdowns in the first quarter. Sealback Fred Tice broke the ice on a 45-yard dash with the aid of good blocking. Bobby Paschal combined a second marker after a sustained drive and then the elusive Tice again broke loose for a 65-yard touchdown sprint just before the first period horn sounded. The Tiger defense seemed to be the aid of two extra point boots by Ned Henderson, the score stood 20-0 in favor of the Wildcats at the end of the first quarter. The second period saw the Tigers furnishing more opposition, holding the Wildcats to one touchdown and it was the result of a Tiger fumble which was recovered by Enterprise deep in Elba territory. Score at the half was 28-0. Fumbles and blocked punts played a role in the Tiger opportunities. The second half proved to be a closely contested ball game. In the third quarter Tice received an Elba kickoff and behind good interference ran all the length of the field for the fifth and final touchdown for the Wildcats. On one occasion, substitute Leslie Walker, with a 45-yard sprint, advanced the ball to the Enterprise 21-yard line but an offside penalty and lack of a good punter killed this threat. Boswell, Jacobs, Michel, Walker, Corbett, McCollough Mills and Prescott did most of the ball-carrying for the Tigers. Hayes, Hudson, Troy, Casey and Sealback were outstanding in the line. Substitutes by Coach McCrury were frequent in the second period. From a statistical standpoint the Wildcats outclassed the Tigers. They gained 252 yards through the air which resulted in 289 rushing and 23 passes through the air which resulted in 21 first downs. The Tigers managed to net 86 yards on the ground and 49 air. He said experience, hustle and desire to win are the main points he has been attempting to instill into the minds of his charges and he believes they are improving.
